2021 Declaration

Father, I thank you for this new year that is now available to me. As I transition, I am spiritually aware of this prophetic moment in my life. Though I have been through hardships by the dozens and have been weighed down by burden after burden; though men have ridden over my head and I have gone through the fire and the water, I will put the past behind me and look to the Lord. He has brought me into the spacious province of His abundance so that I may enjoy His kingdom living from this day unto eternity. This is a new day in my life!

I know that my words are the bridle and rudder that guides my whole body. My words give direction to those within my circle of influence. My words will take me where I want to go, or where I DON'T want to go if I'm not careful. My tongue, though small in comparison to the other parts of my body, is the most powerful force within me. With it, I am able to make great boasts that can bring either blessings or disaster into my life. I choose to steer my family in the direction of peace, prosperity, holiness, and ALL good things through my words. By the power of the Spirit, I will speak my way into the paths of blessing and prosperity that God desires for me to walk in.

Father, we have consecrated ourselves to be holy as You are holy. Through Christ I have put to death the things of my old sinful life. I have put on the new self, and I ask You to continue to renew me and conform me to the image of Christ. I will seek to live a life that is spotless and blameless.

I love You, Lord Jesus Christ, because You first loved me and laid down Your life for me. I want to love You with all of my heart. I choose to put away the idols of my heart. Forgive me and grant me a renewed heart of love for You. Sovereign Lord, today I choose to put away my love for the world and the things of the world. I will seek first Your Kingdom rule in my heart and through my life. I will pursue Your righteousness in my life, in my family, and in my world.

O Lord, I confess that at times, I have been greedy and selfish. I have robbed You of things rightfully Yours. Forgive me and enable my repentance. Because I love You, Lord, I choose this day to obey all You have commanded me. Deepen my love for You and enable my complete obedience.

Christ Jesus, I am Your ambassador, and You have entrusted to me the ministry of reconciliation. I surrender to Your calling to be Your witnesses and to plead with people to get right with You. I pledge myself today to be faithful to obey Your command to make disciples of all people to the ends of the earth.

My mind is set on things above, not things beneath. According to Philippians 4:8-9, my thoughts are governed only by things true, noble, reputable, authentic, compelling, gracious - the best, not the worst; the beautiful, not the ugly; things to praise, not things to curse. I therefore declare a prophetic upgrading of my thought life. I have a new Kingdom paradigm in the name of Jesus. Self-defeating thought patterns, I cancel your assignment in my life and I make you a part of the footstool of Jesus. I decree and declare that there will be no holdups, no setbacks, and no more delays.

I am living in the day of God's inconceivable blessings. His abundance is accelerating on my behalf. My harvest springs up all around me even as I am sowing my seed. The mountains around me drip with new wine and the hills pour out God's blessings making my harvest one of matchless quality and value.

As I sustain the work of the Lord, God sustains me even if He has to provide for me supernaturally. I believe that He is Jehovah Jireh. My God shall supply every one of my needs. The former and the latter rain are coming down together and are yielding a harvest of abundance in my life.

Heavenly Father, let it be sealed in heaven that this year will be a year of unprecedented favor, supernatural provision, showers of blessings, divine restoration and increased anointing at LOC, in my life, and in the lives of those connected to my house. I declare this prophetic word in Jesus' name - AMEN!!
